STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER REGARDING EXCLUSION OF TIME

20 The defendants came before the Court for a status/trial setting appearance on June 15, 2006.
21 The matter was set over until August 17, 2006 at 2:30 p.m. before the Court for a status hearing.
22 The parties agreed, and the Court found, that the time between June 15, 2006 through August 17,
23 2006 is properly excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18, United States Code, Sections
24 3161(h)(8)(A) and (h)(B)(ii) and (iv). The parties agree, and the Court previously found that,
25 that the case was complex, due to the nature of the crime, the number of different entities, bank
26 accounts, and identities involved, and the large amount of discovery which the defense needs to 27 review. The defendants represented that this delay is necessary so that they can continue to 28 review discovery and hire an expert to analyze the various bank accounts. Due to the complexity of this matter and the need for the defendants to prepare their case by reviewing the voluminous discovery and using an expert to analyze the various accounts, failure to grant the requested continuance would unreasonably deny the defense the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation. The parties agree that the continuance from June 15, 2006 through August 17, 2006 is also necessary due to continuity of defense counsel, given the need for defense counsel to spend time preparing the instant case and other cases during this time period. The parties agree that the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial.

ORDER

For the foregoing reasons, and as stated on the record at the June 15, 2006 hearing in this matter, the Court HEREBY ORDERS the period between June 15, 2006 and August 17, 2006 is excluded from the speedy trial calculation under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3161(h)(8)(A) and (h)(B)(ii) and (iv). The Court finds that the failure to grant the requested continuance would unreasonably deny defense counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, given the complexity of this case and the need for continuity of counsel. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial and in the prompt disposition of 1 criminal cases.

2 IT IS SO ORDERED.
